The Clipper Round the World Race fleet has arrived at Dennis Conner's North Cove.

Each boat is crewed by 18 sailors. They have just sailed from Jamaica and are close to completing their circum-navigation of the globe.

These ten 68-foot boats will be here until Wednesday morning when they race off to Liverpool, England.

This is the second time the Clipper Race has stopped at North Cove, the first being in 2006. The race is held every two years.

More details on this race are at www.clipperroundtheworld.com.
