Lady Sylvia arrived at Dennis Conner's North Cove this afternoon and docked in slip N4.

Visitors to North Cove will recognize Lady Sylvia as one of our seasonal yachts. This will be her third summer based out of North Cove. She is a 106 foot Westship which can cruise at 23 knots.

Yesterday evening, her crew overnighted in Atlantic City before making their final daily run here to the Big Apple.

What a great way to arrive in the city - first passing under the Verrazano Narrows Bridge, then motoring by the Statue of Liberty and finally approaching the skyline of Manhattan!

And just a short way up the Hudson shoreline is a magical marina, nestled among the great skyscrapers of industry and the residential buildings of city dwellers. It's known as North Cove and the Dock Masters there stand by to catch your lines and roll out the red carpet. Welcome home Lady Sylvia!
