

July 3, 2008

For the past several months, the dock masters at North Cove has been eagerly awaiting the arrival of a special visitor - one of the world's most beautiful classic yachts and also one of Monaco's most active ambassadors for "La Belle Classe."

Today, the grand yacht Eleonora arrived at Dennis Conner's North Cove and secured her lines in slip N3.

What a great way to start the July 4th celebration!

Eleonora is a 162-foot gaff rigged schooner and a replica of Nathanael Greene Herreshoff's famous 1910 schooner "Westward." She is the epitome of classic elegance and a magical sight under sail.

More details about Eleonora are at www.yachteleonora.com

To welcome this grand yacht, all New York Harbor boaters are invited to participate in the "Eleonora Friendship Sail" on Sunday, July 6, 2008. Details are at www.nyharborsailing.com/Eleonora.htm

This sail will start at 2:30 p.m. in the Hudson River. Then Eleonora and the Welcoming Fleet will sail south to the Statue of Liberty. If conditions permit, Eleonora will turn around and sail north, passing through the Welcoming Fleet before heading south again down the harbor and to the Verrazano Narrows.

Then on Tuesday evening, there will be a special Moët & Chandon reception onboard with Bernard d'Alessandri of Yacht Club de Monaco to announce the creation of the Spirit of Tuiga US Committee. Details are at www.nyharborsailing.com/Tuiga/default.htm
